

Pragmatic Affinity Program

About Pragmatic

Pragmatic was founded in 2007 to bring new collaboration solutions to the business market in North America and has built a brand based on delivering the highest quality solutions and best customer service in the collaboration market.

Pragmatic is a one stop shop for everything to do with business conferencing. Having got our start in the audio space, we are now active in video conferencing and one-to-many streaming and consult on and resell conferencing hardware.

The Pragmatic Affinity Program

The Pragmatic Affinity Program is designed to help your members save on their own conferencing costs, and to extend high-quality, reliable conferencing and collaboration services to their members and affiliates. Discounts apply to all services that Pragmatic offers, including teleconferencing, video conferencing, hardware and more.

Member Discounts

As a participant in the Affinity program, you and your members can SAVE BETWEEN 20% AND 50% on all Pragmatic products and services! Read on to learn more about our service offering!

Conferencing Services

UMX: Flawless Video Meetings

No Downloads. No Contracts. UMX is the simplest, most secure and robust video conferencing platform on the market today.

High-Quality Video Meetings

Host HD video meetings from your browser. Connect SIP video devices for free, with no connectors or downloads necessary.

Enhanced Meeting Security

UMX meetings are encrypted and do not require downloads. None of your data is collected or stored.

Active User Pricing

Didn't use the service this month? Then don't pay this month. Sign up as many people as necessary but only pay for what gets used.

Reliable, Cost-Saving Audio Conferencing
